

Hi Glen,

I just wanted to let you know that after leaving the coolant flush in my car last week I drained it at the weekend and was very impressed with the results.

It also nicely cleaned all of the rusty residue out of my coolant overflow bottle and I can actually see the level of coolant through the side of the bottle now.

I would definitely recommend this to anyone who has issues with rust in the cooling system.

Thanks,
Robert Smith.
(Auckland Client)